

Pre-Field

A caveat: This directory gets “somewhat” updated each year. Every effort is made to have correct Website addresses and due dates. In every instance check out the Website of any fellowship you intend to pursue and read that carefully

National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship Program

A three-year award; covers tuition and a stipend of $32,000. Essentially college seniors and first- and second-year graduate students are eligible to apply. All applications must be submitted via NSF’s “fastlane” on the Web. US citizens and permanent residents.

<https://www.nsfgrfp.org/>

https://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=6201

<https://www.fastlane.nsf.gov/grfp/>

info@nsfgrfp.org; (866) 673-4737

Deadline: applications are due October 26, 2017; 5:00 pm Central Time

Ford Foundation Fellowship Programs (Predoctoral)

Predocutorial Fellowships for doctoral students (US citizens and Permanent Residents) regardless of race, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability or sexual orientation. A positive factor in choosing successful candidates is membership in a minority group whose under representation in the American professorate has been severe and longstanding (Alaskan Natives [Eskimo or Aleut], Black/African-Americans, Mexican Americans, Chicanas/Chicanos, Native American Indians, Native Pacific Islanders [Polynesian/Micronesian], Puerto Rican). Any eligible student may apply who can provide evidence that they can fully utilize 3 years of support including a year of course work (i.e., 1st or 2nd year in the Chicago program). Award includes stipend of $24,000 and tuition allowance and provides up to 3 years of support. Applicants must be committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level and be well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students.

Fellowship Office, The National Academies

500 Fifth Street NW, Washington, DC 20001

(202) 334-2872; infofell@nas.edu;

<http://sites.nationalacademies.org/pga/fordfellowships/>

Deadline: December 14, 2017, 4:00 pm Central Time (Application is on-line)

Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) Doctoral Fellowships

Fellowships of $20,000CN/year for 12-48 months (depending on amount of prior graduate work in the same discipline) for Canadian Citizens and permanent residents. (Applicants in US doctoral programs must have completed at least one previous degree at a Canadian university.)

Doctoral Awards Program, Fellowships and Institutional Grants Division

SSHRC, 350 Albert Street, P.O. Box 1610, Ottawa, ON K1P 6G4

(613) 943-7777, Fax (613) 943-1329, fellowships@sshrc-crsh.gc.ca

<http://www.sshrc-crsh.gc.ca/home-accueil-eng.aspx>

<http://www.sshrc-crsh.gc.ca/funding-financement/programmes-programms/fellowships/doctoral-doctorat-eng.aspx>

Deadline: November 7, 2017

EPA-STAR (Environmental Protection Agency, Science to Achieve Results Fellowships

Fellowships for master’s and doctoral level students in environmental fields of study. Subject to availability of funding and other applicable considerations, the Agency plans to award approximately 55 new fellowships in the Fall of 2015. The Fellowship Program provides up to $44,000 per year of support per fellowship. Doctoral students may be supported for a maximum of three years ($132,000), usable over a period of five years. Doctoral applicants cannot have completed more than 4 years in their current doctoral program. Applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents. Relevant fields of study: Ecology, economics, engineering, modeling, health sciences, physical sciences, earth sciences, exposure sciences, social sciences, informational sciences, mathematical and computer sciences, and environmental sciences (any graduate level investigation relating to the protection of human health and the environment.

<https://www.epa.gov/research-fellowships/science-achieve-results-star-graduate-fellowships>

Deadline: May 26 (in 2015) Deadline?? Fellowship & web page are still active

Title VI - FLAS Fellowships

Fellowships for support of modern foreign language and area studies (East Asia, Latin America, South Asia, Middle East, Russia/East Europe) cover all tuition and fees and provide a $15,000 stipend.

Summer fellowships for intensive language study include up to $5000 tuition and $2500 stipend. In-residence grad students fill out application from the Dean of Students Office. Open to incoming as well as in-residence graduate students, US citizens or permanent residents. Application is on line.

On campus: Social Science Dean of Students, Foster 107 or the Area Centers for Latin America, South Asia, Middle East, East Europe

Applications are on line at:

<https://grad.uchicago.edu/fellowships/UChicago-managed-fellowships/flas>

Deadline: Mid-January/Early-February annually (February 13 in 2017)

Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans

These fellowships (30 per year) provide an annual stipend of $25,000 +half the cost of tuition for two years of graduate study in any scholarly discipline or professional field. Eligible "New Americans" are (1) US Permanent Residents who have had more than one year of IRS filings; (2) naturalized US citizens or (3) children of two parents who are both naturalized citizens. Applicants may be no older than 30 years of age as of the application deadline and may be no further advanced than the 2nd year of study in the same graduate program; some preference is given to candidates who have not yet begun their graduate studies but are in the process of applying. Candidates must demonstrate the relevance of graduate education to their long-term career goals and potential in enhancing their contributions to society. Fellowships are not solely awarded on the basis of academic record. A successful candidate will give evidence of at least two of the follow three attributes or criteria for selection: (1) creativity, originality, and initiative demonstrated in any area of her/his live; (2) a commitment to and capacity of accomplishment, demonstrated through activity that has required drive and sustained effort; and (3) a commitment to the values expressed in the US Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The third criterion includes activity in support of human rights and the rule of law, in opposition to unwarranted encroachment on personal liberty, and in advancing the responsibilities of citizenship in a free society. Fellows are selected by region and finalists are invited for interview.

The Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans

224 West 57th Street, New York, NY 10019

(212) 547-6926; FAX (212) 548-4623

PDSoros@pdsoros.org; <https://www.pdsoros.org/>

(Applications on the Web)

Deadline (postmark): November 1, 2017 (10:59 CST)

Leiffer Fellowships (U of C Anthropology Department)

Leiffer Fellowships are designed to assist students in developing viable research projects. Such projects generally include preliminary fieldwork, travel, or other activities that will help prepare for later dissertation research. The funds are not intended for training (language training, coursework, etc.) but for carrying out independent or semi-independent projects or visits leading to the definition of research issues and the development of master's papers, dissertation proposals, and dissertation fieldwork. Travel to conferences will not be supported. Applicants are strongly encouraged to seek outside funding before/in addition to applying for a Leiffer award. Preference will be given to students for whom funding for such research is not available from other sources and second priority to those whose research budgets exceed other available funding. Post-field students are not eligible to apply. Competition is announced each Spring through the Anthropology e-mail network.

Deadline: early-to-mid-April (April 7, in 2017)

Critical Language Scholarship Program

Scholarships (tuition, room, board, travel) for intensive overseas study of critical-need languages such as Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Turkish and Urdu – sponsored by the US Department of State Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and administered by the American Councils for International Education. Recipients of these scholarships will be expected to continue their language study beyond the scholarship period and later apply their critical language skills in their professional careers. Open to graduate and undergraduate students, must be US citizen. Website contains a long list of languages, levels, and programs. Application is on the

Website - Posted in mid-September

American Councils for International Education, CLS Program

1828 L Street NW, Suite 1200, Washington, DC 20036; 202-833-7522

<http://www.clscholarship.org/>

cls@americancouncils.org

Deadlines: Mid-November?

Boren Awards for International Study // Boren Fellowships

Boren Fellowships provide US graduate students (must be US citizen at time of application) the opportunity to add an important international and language component to their graduate education through specialization in area study, language study, or increased language proficiency. Fellowships support study and research in areas of the world critical to U.S. interests, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America and the Middle East. (Countries of Western Europe, Canada, Australia and New Zealand are excluded). All applicants must be interested in studying less commonly taught languages, including but not limited to Arabic, Chinese, Korea, Portuguese, Russian and Swahili. (There is a long list of languages on the Website. Special initiatives from some African languages). Boren Fellowships provide up to $24,000 for overseas study. In addition the Fellowships can provide limited funding for domestic language study that will supplement the overseas component. The maximum award for a combined overseas and domestic program is $30,000. Fellowship awards are made for a minimum of 12 weeks and a maximum of 24 months. Fellowships promote long term linguistic and cultural immersion. Therefore, all overseas study must be a minimum of 12 weeks with preference given to applicants proposing overseas programs of 6 months or longer. Fellowships are funded by the National Security Education Program (NSEP), which focuses on geographic areas, language, and fields of study deemed critical to US national security. Applicants should identify how their projects as well as their future academic and career goals, will contribute to U.S. national security, broadly defined. NSEP draws on a broad definition of national security, recognizing that the scope of national security has expanded to include not only the traditional concerns of protecting and promoting American well-being, but also the challenges of global society, including sustainable development, environmental degradation, global disease and hunger, population growth and migration, and economic competitiveness. In exchange for fellowship funding, all Boren Fellows must agree to the NSEP Service Requirement which stipulates that an award recipient work in the Federal Government in a position with national security responsibilities -- priorities being the Departments of Defense, Homeland Security, State, or the Intelligence Community. If, after making a full and good faith effort (according to conditions and rules established by NSEP), an award recipient demonstrates to NSEP that no appropriate position is available in one of these agencies, he/she must seek a position with national security responsibilities in any federal department or agency. Approval of service outside of a priority agency is contingent upon satisfactory demonstration of a full and good faith effort in accordance with conditions established by NSEP. (Beginning in 2008 this requirement was modified to allow recipients to fulfill the service agreement in a “position in the field of education in a discipline related to the study supported by the program.” [By petition only])

Application is Online. Campus Advisor is Jessica Smith in UChicagoGRAD

Boren Awards, Institute of International Education

1400 K Street NW, 7th Floor, Washington, DC 20005

1-800-618-6737; boren@iie.org;

<http://www.borenawards.org>

<https://www.borenawards.org/fellowships/boren-fellowship-basics>
Deadline: January 30 (in 2018) [On campus deadline may be earlier]

ASMEA Research Grants (Association for the Study of the Middle East and Africa)

Research grants of up to $2500 for students (post MA) engaged in the study of the Middle East and Africa. Applicants may be affiliated with any academic discipline. First time and junior grant applicants are preferred. Proposal must represent new and un-published research and be relevant to the qualifying research areas designed by AMESA. Applicants must be members of ASMEA. Application is on the Web. info@asmeascholars.org

<http://www.asmeascholars.org/resource/awards-research-travel-grants/>
ASMEA, 2100 M Street NW, 170-291, Washington DC 20037. 202-429-8860

Deadline: March 31 (in 2017).

Nicholson Center Graduate Fellowships – for research in the British Isles

Pre-Dissertation travel grants for up to 3 months to anywhere in the British Isles (including Ireland) for students in the Humanities or Social Sciences who, at the time of application, are post-qualifying exams & who “need not have yet had a dissertation proposal.” Research must be completed in the British Isles but need NOT have the British Isles as a primary focus (e.g., work on Africa, South Asia, East Asia, North America, or the West Indies that requires research in the British Isles qualifies).

(Applications from students who have completed at least one year of graduate study (by the date of intended travel), but have not yet passed their exams, may apply for funding for periods of support up to three months. Such applications should include a statement of how travel to the British Isles or Ireland, at this point in their studies, is necessary for the completion of their exams and will also contribute to their dissertation research. All such applications must include an informal letter or email from the student’s advisor stating the importance of travel to the British Isles for the completion of the student’s exams.)

Nicholson Center for British Studies, Univ. of Chicago, Classics Bldg, Rm 114
Jeanne Fitzsimmons fitzsimmons@uchicago.edu 773-834-3403

<http://british.uchicago.edu/fellowships-and-competitions>

Deadline: November 26 (in 2018 and Winter Qtr-date TBA).

Pozen Human Rights Program Internships (U of C)

20 internships of $5000 to work with non-governmental organizations, governmental agencies, and international bodies around the world in human rights work. Application is open to graduate students and 1st, 2nd and 3rd year students in the College (graduating seniors are NOT eligible). Students apply in the fall; the Human Rights Program then helps them identify an ideal host organization and to plan an internship experience that satisfies both the student’s and the organization’s goals and expectations. Applicants are encouraged to work in organizations or regions that complement their academic interests, but the internships are NOT intended to fund research. During Winter break/Quarter interns develop a list of potential host organizations of interest to them and begin making contacts. By the end of Winter quarter all interns should have a confirmed placement. Spring quarter is dedicated to the development of a concrete work plan. In collaboration with their host organizations, interns identify tangible projects whose completion meets both students’ and organizations’ goals. Interns are required to take one of the three Human Rights core sequence courses prior to the start of their internship.

Human Rights Program, 5720 S. Woodlawn, Chicago, IL 60637
(773) 834-0957; FAX (773) 702-9266
human-rights@uchicago.edu

<https://humanrights.uchicago.edu/internships>

Deadline: Early November. Applications available in late September

Pozen Human Rights Graduate Research Grants (U of C)

Awards of up to $5000 for doctoral students in any year of their program. Can be used for travel or other expenses related to research projects such as books, software, copying costs, temporary lodging, costs of recording devices or cameras, etc; proposal should be for projects that can be carried out at some point during the 5 quarters subsequent to the time of application (eg Summer 2018 thru Summer 2019) .

Proposal related to faculty-directed human rights projects (The Crisis of Humanitarianism; Health and Human Rights; Human Rights at Home; and Rights and Duties) are particularly welcome.

Pozen Family Center for Human Rights, 5720 S. Woodlawn

(773) 834-0957; human-rights@uchicago.edu

<https://humanrights.uchicago.edu/awards/researchgrants>

Deadline: March 28 (in 2017) 11:59 pm

American Philosophical Society Lewis and Clark Fund for Exploration and Field Research

Awards of up-to $5000 for exploratory field studies for the collection of specimens and data and to provide the imaginative stimulus that accompanies direct observation. Applications are invited from disciplines with a large dependence on field studies, such as archaeology, anthropology, ecology, linguistics, and paleontology. Grants are available [only] to doctoral students; postdoctoral fellows, master's degree candidates, and undergraduates are not eligible. Competition is open to US residents wishing to carry out research anywhere in the world. Foreign applicants must either be based at a US institution or plan to carry out their work in the US. Applications are on the website.

Lewis and Clark Fund, American Philosophical Society

104 S. Fifth Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106-3387

Linda Musumeci LMusumeci@amphilsoc.org, (215) 440-3429

<https://amphilsoc.org/grants/lewisandclark>

Deadline: February 1, annually

American Philosophical Society Phillips Fund for Native American Research

Grants of up to $3500 to support research in Native American linguistics, ethnohistory and the history of studies of Native Americans, in the continental US and Canada. (Grants are NOT made for projects in archaeology, ethnography, or psycholinguistics). Applications are accepted from graduate students for research on masters theses or doctoral dissertations. Applications are on the Website.

Phillips Fund for Native American Research, American Philosophical Society

104 S. Fifth Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106-3386

Linda Musumeci LMusumeci@amphilsoc.org, (215) 440-3429

<https://amphilsoc.org/grants/phillips>

Deadline: March 1

Jacobs Research Funds, Whatcom Museum Society

Grants to individuals of up to $3000 supporting linguistic and anthropological research on the indigenous peoples of North and South America -- with a preference for the Pacific Northwest. Projects that produce new data are the highest priority, including proposals to digitize, transcribe and translate old materials that might otherwise become lost or inaccessible. Most funded projects fall within linguistics (including ethnolinguistics, sociolinguistics and world view) or anthropology (including social-cultural anthropology, social organization, political organization, and folk taxonomy). Projects in religion, mythology, music, dance, and other areas are also eligible. (Awards of $6000 to 2 or more collaborators, or of $9000 to individual researchers requiring an intense period of fieldwork are occasionally made.) No citizenship restriction, open to students at all levels of a degree program so long as the project is relevant. (Pre-MA applicants must have a faculty sponsor.) Application is online.

The Jacobs Research Funds

jacobsf@uw.edu

Department of Linguistics

<http://depts.washington.edu/jacobsf/>

Box 352425, University of Washington

Seattle, WA 98195-2425

Deadline: February 15

The Edward L. Ryerson Fellowship in Archaeology (Greece/Rome/Near East)

Awarded annually to graduate students who are studying Greek and Roman archaeology.

Students may apply for travel/conference grants, pre-dissertation grants, or dissertation write-up fellowships. In the absence of qualified candidates who are studying Greek and Roman archaeology, fellowship funds will be available to graduate students who are studying Near Eastern archaeology. Application form is on line. (Anthro students do win these.)

c/o Humanities Dean of Students Office, Walker Museum, Suite 111

1115 East 58th Street, Chicago, IL 60637 773-702-1552 humdos@uchicago.edu

<https://humanities.uchicago.edu/students/financial-aid/fellowships/internal-fellowships#ryerson>

Deadline: Late Winter Quarter (March 27 in 2017)

The Point Foundation. National LGBT Scholarship Fund

Application process is open to all LGBT students nationwide regardless of level of education.

No citizenship requirement, but applicants must be attending schools in the US. Size of scholarships vary.

Point Foundation – Offices in New York City and Los Angeles

info@pointfoundation.org; 323-933-1234

<http://www.thepointfoundation.org/>

Deadline: January 30 in 2018 (Application screen opens November 1)

Center for the Study of Race, Politics & Culture Graduate Research and Travel Grants (U of C)

Research/Travel Grants of up to $2500 for research related to either the domestic or international aspects of the study of race and ethnicity. Preference is given to dissertation-related research, but other projects will be considered. Grants may be used to supplement other small grants, but cannot be combined to yield support of more than $5000. Application consists of a description of the proposed research, a detailed budget, a CV, and 1 letter of recommendation.

CSRPC, 5733 S. University, Room 2004 773-702-8063; csrpc@uchicago.edu, stuohey@uchicago.edu

http://csrpc.uchicago.edu/fellowships_and_funding/ (click on Graduate Travel Grants)

Deadline: April 4 (in 2017) 12:00 Noon

Chicago Center for Jewish Studies Research and Travel Grants (U of C)

Grants (funds permitting) to students to support their work in any area of Jewish Studies. Eligible expenses (in order of priority) include (1) research travel and materials, (2) advanced foreign language study in a accredited program (beyond the level offer at the University), and (3) conference travel and fees. Because funds are currently limited, priority will be given to proposal in the order listed. Students may combine their awards with funding from other sources.

Chicago Center for Jewish Studies, 1115 East 60th Street, Room 302A

Chicago, IL 60637; 773-702-7108; ccjs@uchicago.edu, npardee@uchicago.edu

<https://lucian.uchicago.edu/blogs/ccjs/academics/graduate-program/research-and-travel-grants-for-graduate-students/>

Deadline: mid-February? It's been a while since these were offered, I think

Fuerstenberg Fellowships

Scholarships of $1500-$5000 for in-residence (in the first four years of study) University of Chicago doctoral students demonstrating financial need. Criteria: academic excellence, record of Jewish community involvement, studies/research in a variety of areas of Jewish studies, broadly defined.

Contact: Jessica Smith, UChicagoGRAD

970 East 58th St, 3rd floor (Bookstore)

773-834-7378; jessicasmith@uchicago.edu

<https://grad.uchicago.edu/fellowships/UChicago-managed-fellowships/fuerstenberg>

Deadline: April 17 (in 2017) 5:00 pm CT

AFRICA and Diaspora

African Language Fund and Graduate Student Small Grants

Small awards ($200-$2000) to support U of C graduate students in learning African languages not taught at the university. These funds are very limited, and are intended specifically for students preparing for doctoral research -- although, in exceptional circumstances, they may also be used for other scholarly projects. Applicants in the past have used these funds to defray the costs of tuition or tutoring fees, textbooks and other language learning materials, and portions of costs for travel to language programs offered elsewhere, including in African countries. Letter of application should contain a brief paragraph outlining your proposed doctoral research, another describing why you need the language training and how you intend to go about undertaking it, and a budget. No application should exceed $2,000; disbursements will be made on the basis of both the merit and need of the application pool as a whole.

Emily Osborn, Department of History, University of Chicago eosborn1@uchicago.edu

Deadline: Usually Autumn/Winter of each year Watch for e-mail from the African Studies Workshop

West African Research Association (WARA) Pre-Doctoral Fellowship Competition

Pre-doctoral research fellowships ($3500 + round trip air travel up to $2500) for summer research (2-3 months) in West Africa to prepare a doctoral research proposal. Open to US citizens who are currently enrolled in graduate programs in the US. It is advisable that applicants be conversant in an African language spoken where they will be conducting research. Priority will be given to applicants who are at the pre-dissertation stage, that is, who will be returning to their institution to complete course work and exams, before beginning fieldwork. The West African Research Center (WARC) in Dakar, Senegal may assist with academic contacts and affiliations and recommendations for lodging in the country chosen by the fellow. Application is online.

<http://www.bu.edu/wara/>

<http://www.bu.edu/wara/fellowship/pre-doctoral-fellowships/>

WARA, African Studies Center

Boston University, 232 Bay State Road, Boston, MA 02215

(617) 353-8902; FAX (617) 353-4975 wara@bu.edu

Deadline: February 1 (in 2017)

African Flagship Languages Initiative (AFLI)

A national program hosted in Summer 2017 at the Center for African Studies at the University of Florida on behalf of the Institute of International Education. AFLI exposes learners to the culture and traditions of the languages both inside and outside the classroom. Instruction is performance-based and communicative-oriented provided by expert, native-speaking instructors. Languages offered: Akan/Twi, French, Hausa, Portuguese, Swahili, Wolof, Yourba & Zulu. Program Dates June 2 – July 29.

AFLI also sponsors overseas Fall Programs in Africa (in 2017 in French/Wolof in Senegal, Portuguese in Mozambique, Swahili in Tanzania); students are frequently funded by the Boren Fellowships (see above).

<http://africanlanguages.americancouncils.org/>

Center for African Studies, University of Florida

Gainesville, FL 32611; 352-392-6232 or 352-392-2183

Charles Bwenge cbwenge@ufl.edu

Deadline: March 5 (in 2017) for the Florida program perhaps earlier for FLAS consideration. See the Website

ASIA

Luce Scholars Program

Fellowship for students (undergraduate seniors and graduate students) who have had limited exposure to Asia a chance to spend one year in any one of 17 Asian countries. Luce Scholars have backgrounds in virtually every field other than Asian studies, including but not limited to the arts, journalism, law, medicine, science, public health, environmental studies and international relations. Candidates must be US citizens who by July 1 of the year they enter the program, will have received at least a BA and will not have reached their 30th birthday. Candidates may have taken Asian language or Asia focused courses (without majoring in Asian Studies). They may have spent up to a total of 12 weeks in countries where Scholars are placed. Application is made through the Center for East Asian Studies at Chicago

Contact: Walter Bourdagh walterb@uchicago.edu 773-702-8647

Center for East Asian Studies, 1155 East 60th St. Rm 310, Chicago, IL 60637.

<http://www.hluce.org/lplacement.aspx>

<https://ceas.uchicago.edu/page/luce-scholars-program>

Deadline: October 13 (in 2017).

AIIS Advanced Language Programs in India

The Advanced Language Program in India is open to graduate students (US citizens or permanent residents) who will have completed a minimum of two years of instruction in Hindi, Bengali, Tamil, Marathi, Punjabi, Sanskrit or Urdu at the time of departure. Programs are for 9 months of intensive language instruction at the AIIS Language Centers in Jaipur (Hindi), Madurai (Tamil), Kolkata (Bangla), Pune (Marathi), Mohali (Punjabi), or Lucknow (Urdu). A number of fellowships are available which include airfare and a maintenance allowance sufficient to cover living expenses.

American Institute of Indian Studies (AIIS)

Foster Hall 412, 1130 East 59th Street

Chicago, IL 60637

(773) 702-8638; aiis@uchicago.edu

<http://www.indiastudies.org/language-programs/>

AIIS also sponsors intensive 10 week summer programs and Autumn Semester programs in Hindi (Jaipur), Bangla (Kolkata), Tamil (Madurai), Telugu (Vizag), Marathi (Pune), Malayalam (Thiruvananthapuram), Punjabi (Mohali) Urdu (Lucknow) and Sanskrit or Pali/Prakrit (Pune). (The Bengali & Tamil summer programs require 1 year of prior language work, the Hindi and Sanskrit summer programs requires 2 years of prior language. Applicants for Telugu, Malayalam & Marathi may apply at all levels, including beginning). AIIS has no financial aid for the summer programs, applicants are urged to apply for Summer FLAS/Title VI funds and or to the US State Department's Critical Languages Scholarship Program (due mid-November).

Deadline: January 31 for summer, autumn semester and AY applications

COSAS (Committee on Southern Asian Studies) U of C

Annual fellowship competition for students who have completed two years of course work in a program of graduate study directly relevant to Southern Asian Studies. COSAS fellowships are of four kinds: (1) dissertation support [applicants must have been admitted to candidacy; this category of award has priority over the other two; (2) summer language study support; (3) short-term pre-dissertation overseas travel; and (4) other. There is a 7-Quarter (at a maximum of $4800/quarter) career maximum of support by COSAS funds for each student, and all awards held during and after summer 1996 count toward this maximum; students are also limited to six quarters of support in category (1), and to a maximum of 3 quarters of support in any given year. Students must apply annually for funds for the coming year.

Watch for the annual announcement of this competition. Applications are on line http://southasia.uchicago.edu/funding/cosas_fellowships.

Committee on Southern Asian Studies, University of Chicago

Kelly Hall 104; 5848 S. University Ave, Chicago, IL 60637

(773) 834-9994; FAX (312) 702-1309; ibirkner@uchicago.edu (Irving Birkner)

Deadline (receipt): April 20 (in 2017)

SEASSI (Southeast Asian Studies Summer Institute)

A national program hosted in recent years by the University of Wisconsin at Madison for intensive summer language training at 1st, 2nd, and 3rd year levels in Burmese, Filipino, Hmong, Indonesian, Javanese, Khmer, Lao, Thai and Vietnamese. There are FLAS Fellowships (US citizens and Permanent Residents only) and Partial Tuition awards available for this program – start early.

Center for Southeast Asian Studies, University of Wisconsin-Madison
207 Ingraham Hall, 1155 Observatory Dr., Madison, WI 53706 (Jinda Moore)
(608) 263-1755; FAX (608) 263-3735 seassi@seasia.wisc.edu <http://seassi.wisc.edu/>
Deadlines: February 13, in 2017 for FLAS Fellowships
April 3, in 2017 for Tuition Fellowships and the General Application

SASLI (South Asia Summer Language Institute)

A national program hosted by the University of Wisconsin Madison for intensive summer language training in Bengali, Gujarati, Hindi, Malayalam, Marathi, Pashto, Sanskrit, Sinhala, Tamil, Telugu, Tibetan and Urdu. There are FLAS Fellowships (US citizens and Permanent Residents only) and Partial Tuition awards available for this program – start early.

SASLI, B488 Medical Sciences Center, 1300 University Avenue, Madison, WI 53706
608-261-1194; sasli@southasia.wisc.edu, <http://sasli.wisc.edu/about.html>

Deadlines: February 13, in 2017 for FLAS Fellowships
March 12, in 2017 for Tuition Fellowships and the General Application
Check Website in about late November for current information

United States-Indonesia Society (USINDO) Summer Language Study // Travel Grants

Language Study: USINDO runs an intensive 10-week language and general studies program at Gadjah Mada University in Yogyakarta. Cost is $2000 and one applicant will be awarded a fellowship of $1500 toward this cost. Application is on line, open to US Citizens and Permanent Residents.

summerstudies@usindo.org

USINDO, 1625 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Suite 550, Washington, DC 20036-2260
202-232-1400; usindo@usindo.org

<http://www.usindo.org/grants-fellowships/summer-language-study>

Deadline: February 8, 2018

Henry Luce Foundation/ACLS Program in China Studies: Predissertation Summer Grants

$5000 grants for 3-4 months for graduate students to explore venues and make preliminary research arrangements, to gain advice from potential collaborators regarding subsequent research in China, and to secure necessary permissions for their own fieldwork or archival research. Application essays must provide a rationale for the research agenda with particular attention to the evidence needed to answer research questions. The essay should present a rationale for the need for a summer visit to China prior to dissertation research. It should also provide a plan for travel in China, identifying the individuals, institutions, and sites to be visited. Inclusion of correspondence with potential contacts in China is desirable. Working knowledge of Chinese is required. Research may be carried out in China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, or Tibet.

ACLS, 633 Third Avenue, 8th Floor, New York, NY 10017-6795

fellowships@acls.org; 212-697-1505 <http://www.acls.org/programs/china-studies/>

Deadline: November 8, 2017, 8:00 p.m. CST

Blakemore Foundation: Blakemore Freeman Fellowships for Advanced Study of ASIAN Languages

The Blakemore Foundation makes approximately 12 grants each year for the advanced study of modern Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Burmese, Indonesian, Khmer, Thai, Vietnamese). Blakemore grants are intended for individuals successfully pursuing careers involving Asia who find that language study abroad at an advanced level is essential to realize their goals. The grants fund a year of language study at institutions specified by the Blakemore Foundation [IUP Chinese-Tsinghua-Beijing; ICLP-Taiwan; IUC Japanese-Yokohama, IUC Korean-Seoul]. Where there is no structured language program at an educational institution in the country, the grant may provide for the financing of private tutorials under terms set forth in the Grant Guidelines. The grants cover tuition and related educational expenses, basic living costs and transportation, but do not include dependent expenses. Applicants must be at or near an advanced level in the language of study, must be able to pursue full-time language study during the term of the grant and must be US citizens or permanent residents. Among the various selection criteria, greater weight will be given to applications where the regular use of the language is a key part of the career program and where the applicant has had prior experience in the country in question. Application forms are on the Web

The Blakemore Foundation

ContactUsfoundation@gmail.com

1201 Third Avenue, Suite 4900, Seattle, WA 98101-3099

(206) 359-8778; FAX (206) 359-9778

www.blakemorefoundation.org

Deadline (postmark): December 30, 2017, 11:30 pm EST

Hopkins-Nanjing Center

An educational joint-venture located on the campus of Nanjing University, the Hopkins-Nanjing Center is a well-equipped facility housing up to 50 Chinese and 50 International students. For international students, the Hopkins-Nanjing Program is a one year residential graduate-level program of social science courses relating to contemporary China (history, foreign relations, government, politics, society economics, trade & language) taught in Mandarin by Chinese professors. Each international student is paired with a Chinese roommate in the Center's dormitory wing. The Center's Chinese students learn about the US and the international system from American faculty hired by Johns Hopkins University. For international students, assigned readings are in Chinese & all papers and exams are completed in Chinese. While language improvement is a component of the curriculum, the Center's primary purpose is to train advanced students in China studies. Prerequisite: 3 or more years of Chinese language study and a background in China studies. Substantial financial aid, based on a combination of merit and need, is available. Application is on line

The Hopkins Nanjing Center, Office of International Admissions

1619 Massachusetts Avenue NW

Washington, DC 20036

nanjing@jhu.edu

<http://www.sais-jhu.edu/graduate-studies/campuses/nanjing-china#about-hopkins-nanjing-center>

(202) 663-5800, (800) 362-6546; FAX (202) 663-7729

Deadline: November 1 & February 1 depending on program of application

Inter-University Program for Chinese Language Studies (IUP)-Tsinghua Univ. Beijing

The Inter-University Board (a consortium of American universities including the U of C) currently offers an Academic Year Program, a 16 week Semester Option, and an 8-week Summer Intensive Program in Chinese Language Studies (high intermediate and advanced levels), both located on the Tsinghua University campus in Beijing. Students admitted to the Academic Year Program must be engaged in full-time study and must remain enrolled for the entire year. Fellowship assistance in the form of partial tuition waivers (1/2 to 2/3 of the $16,000 tuition) is available only for the Academic Year Program. The Summer Intensive Program runs from late June through mid-August; tuition is $4800 and IUP has no financial aid available. For both programs students are urged to seek other sources of funding such as FLAS and Blakemore Foundation Fellowships <www.blakemorefoundation.org>. Applicants to the Academic Year (but NOT the Summer) Program must take the Chinese Proficiency Test (CPT) administered by the Center for Applied Linguistics in Washington DC; applicants must make their own arrangements to take the CPT at their own locales in February. Applications for all Programs are available on the Web.

Inter-University Program

1995 University Ave Suite 510J, Berkeley, CA 94704

(510) 642-3873; iup@berkeley.edu; <http://ieas.berkeley.edu/iup/>

Program Admin. is moving back to Stanford. Questions to Brent Haas wbhaas@stanford.edu

Deadlines: January 15 For the Academic Year & Autumn Semester

(Rolling Admissions until Jan 29 for the Summer Program and until mid-September for the Spring Semester)

International Chinese Language Program, National Taiwan University (ICLP)

High quality Chinese language program in Taipei, Taiwan – the former Inter-University Center before it moved to Beijing. Academic year and summer programs. Some fellowship resources listed on the ICLP Website. Summer FLAS could be used there.

International Chinese Language Program, Post Office Box 13-204, Taipei, 106 Taiwan
Or 3-4F, Language Building, No 170, Sec 2, Xinhai Road; Da-An District, Taipei 10663, Taiwan
iclp@ntu.edu.tw; 886-2-2363-9123 <http://iclp.ntu.edu.tw>

Deadlines: April 30 for the following Academic Year; March 15 for Summer

Princeton in Beijing

Summer intensive Chinese language program (intermediate and advanced levels) using the total immersion approach. Program is located on the campus of Beijing Normal University in Beijing; cost is approximately $5300; some financial aid is available. Program runs from late June to mid-August. Applications for admission and financial aid (need based) are available on the Web.

Princeton in Beijing, 211 Jones Hall
Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 08544-1008
(609) 258-4269; FAX (609) 258-7096
pib@princeton.edu; <http://pib.princeton.edu/>

Deadline (receipt): January 15 in 2017

Center for East Asian Studies/Chinese Language Scholarships for Taiwan

Scholarships for Chinese Language study at various programs in Taiwan (e.g. ICLP)
Sponsored by the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Chicago (TECO)

<http://ceas.uchicago.edu/page/chinese-studies-funding>

Center for East Asian Studies, University of Chicago
1155 East 60th St. Rm 310, Chicago, IL 60637
(773) 702-8647; Walter Bourdaghs walterb@uchicago.edu

Deadline: Early Spring Quarter (March 23 in 2018)

Center for East Asian Studies Pre-Dissertation Research Grants in Chinese, Japanese, & Korean Studies

Grants of up to $3000 each to support pre-dissertation research in Chinese, Japanese, and Korean Studies. The grants are intended to enable students to lay the foundations for their research plans - - e.g., to survey archival holdings, to identify and meet with scholars or other advisers. Application is online.

Center for East Asian Studies, 1155 East 60th St. Rm 310, Chicago, IL 60637.
For further information contact eastasia@uchicago.edu; 773-702-8647

<http://ceas.uchicago.edu/page/grants-and-fellowships>

Deadline: April 10 in 2017

Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies-Yokohama

Academic Year and Summer Programs in Japanese language training. Applicants must have completed 2 years or more of college-level study of Japanese or the equivalent. Applicants to the academic year program must obtain an acceptable score on the Inter-University Center Japanese Proficiency Test; summer applicants are expected to have a solid foundation in the fundamental structure of Japanese, to have mastered both kana syllabaries, and to be able to read and write approx 500-700 kanji. Programs are open to both graduate and undergraduate students. Programs cost Stanford-levels of tuition ($25,000 for academic year, $4400 for the summer); some financial aid is available from the Inter-University Center, but not enough to cover all costs. Applicants are urged to seek additional sources of support; applications may be downloaded from the Web

(AY Program): Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies
Encina Hall, Room C334; 616 Serra Street, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305-6055
(650) 725-1490; FAX (650) 723-9972; iucjapan@stanford.edu

<https://web.stanford.edu/dept/IUC/cgi-bin/>

Summer Program, Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies

Pacifico Yokohama, 5F
1-1-1 Minato Mirai, Nishi-Ku; Yokohama, Japan 220-0012
011-81-45-223-2002; FAX 011-81-45-223-2060; office@iucjapan.org
<http://www.iucjapan.org>

Deadlines (receipt); January 13 (in 2017) for AY program; March 10 for Summer.

Center for East Asian Studies – IUC Supplemental Grants

Supplements tuition and stipend for selected students attending the 10-month program at the Inter-University Center for Japanese Studies in Yokohama. To be eligible, students must also apply for external fellowships to support the cost of attending IUC and must have been enrolled in Japanese language courses at UChicago during the preceding year. Students who have not continually been enrolled in Japanese classes will not be considered for supplemental funding. This grant is considered taxable income for citizens of the United States.

Center for East Asian Studies, 1155 East 60th St. Rm 310, Chicago, IL 60637
773-702-8647 eastasia@uchicago.edu

<http://ceas.uchicago.edu/page/japanese-studies-funding#IUC>

Deadline: April 10 (in 2017)

Center for East Asian Studies – Japanese Studies Professional Training Grants

The professional training grant funds participation in formal programs, organized courses, and workshops that offer training in specific skills essential to the student's dissertation research or professional profile and not available at the University of Chicago. The grant is normally awarded for advanced language training (3rd year and beyond), kambun, classical Japanese, kuzushiji, and/or pedagogy. The Committee will also consider grant applications for accent reduction courses as a form of professional training, as well as workshops and courses that focus on specific skill-building that is crucial to a student's overall course of study and professional development. Students must research and select the class or program they feel best fits their research needs. Sample programs include but are not limited to: Advanced Japanese at KCJS; Classical Japanese at KCJS; IUC Summer program; and IUC Summer Intensive Kambun program. Applicants must have been enrolled in Japanese language courses at UChicago during the preceding year.

Center for East Asian Studies, 1155 East 60th St. Rm 310, Chicago, IL 60637.
773-702-8647 eastasia@uchicago.edu

<http://ceas.uchicago.edu/page/japanese-studies-funding#Professional Training>

Deadline: April 10 (in 2017)

Rikkyo University Exchange Partnership and Monbukagakusho Scholarships to Rikkyo University

Fellowship open to U of C graduate and undergraduate students currently enrolled in a regular course of study and intending to return to the U of C after completion of the study period in Japan

<http://ceas.uchicago.edu/page/japanese-studies-funding>

Center for East Asian Studies, University of Chicago
1155 East 60th St. Rm 310, Chicago, IL 60637
(773) 702-8647; eastasia@uchicago.edu

Applications are available from the Office of International Affairs in I-House

Deadlines: early November & Mid-March for the Exchange Program early January for Monbukagakusho

Korea Foundation Fellowship for KOREAN Language Training

6, 9, or 12 month fellowships (tuition, monthly living stipend) for the full-time study of Korean language at a Korean university language institute (usually Seoul National, Yonsei or Korea University); open to graduate students; applicants must already have basic knowledge of and ability to communicate in Korean, however, applicants who plan a long-term career in Korean studies can be considered even if they are just beginning language study. Candidates under 30 years of age are given priority.

Fellowship for Korean Language Training,

Korean Language Department, The Korea Foundation
11F Diplomatic Center Bldg
2558 Nambusunhwanro, Seocho-gu, Seoul 137-863, Korea
011-82-2-2046-6514; FAX 011-82-2-3463-6075 helpdesk@kf.or.kr; hjlee@kf.or.kr https://apply.kf.or.kr/selectNoticeAndApplicationView.nkf?lang=en_US&anucNo=A1P0000414
Deadline: July 31 of the year before the fellowship is actually to begin (e.g. July 31, 2017 to begin from March or September 2018)
Applications available on the Web

MIDDLE EAST

CASA (Center for Arabic Study Abroad)

2015-26 Program will be held both in Cairo and at the Qasid Institute in Amman, Jordan Summer and Full Year Programs. A limited number of fellowships for advanced Arabic language study at the American University in Cairo of the University of Damascus for graduate and upper-division undergraduate students committed to a career in Middle East Studies. Fellowships applicants must be US citizens or Permanent Residents, have had at least 3 years of Arabic language study, and pass a written examination. Two programs are available: 1) a two-month summer Institute concentrating on Colloquial Egyptian Arabic and 2) a full-year program including Colloquial but emphasizing literary Arabic. (The full-year program is primarily open to graduate students. Applications are available on the CASA website, at our Middle East Center, and by contacting the following address

Center for Arabic Study Abroad Applications on the Web
Center for Middle Eastern Studies casaprogram1967@gmail.com
Harvard University, 38 Kirkland St., Cambridge, MA 02138
617-495-4078 <https://casa.fas.harvard.edu/program-main-page>

Deadline: January 9 in 2017 (receipt) (Application site opens in October)

Arabic for Non-Native Speakers Program, Qatar University

Intensive Arabic language program at Qatar University (QU) in Doha for an entire academic year (September-June). Scholarship includes tuition, room and board in university dorms, round-trip airfare, local transportation and books. Prerequisite is intermediate or advanced proficiency in Arabic

Qatar Scholarship Program, Center for Contemporary Arab Studies
Georgetown University, ICC 241, 37th and O Streets NW, Washington DC 20057-1020
202-687-7902; qatarscholar@georgetown.edu

<https://ccas.georgetown.edu/qatar-scholarship> link still works but the program is now run completely through Qatar University

Deadline: March 10, in 2016

ARIT Fellowships for Intensive Advanced TURKISH Language Study in Istanbul

Summer program Advanced Turkish at Bogaziçi University sponsored by the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT). 15 fellowships available that cover airfare, tuition, room, board and modest maintenance stipend. Fellowship applicants must be US citizens or Permanent Residents currently enrolled in a graduate degree program. Applicants must perform satisfactorily on a Turkish language proficiency exam. Applications are on line. [See also Critical Language Scholarship Program – Above]

Dr. Sylvia Omdor, Dept. of Arabic and Islamic Studies, Georgetown University
210 N. Poulton Hall, 1437 37th St. NW, Washington, DC 20007
(215) 898-3474; FAX (215) 898-0657; aritfellowship@georgetown.edu, aritoffice@gmail.com
<http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/ARIT/ARITSummerLanguageProgram.html>

ARIT Deadline: February 6 (in 2017)

[Critical Language Scholarship applications due in mid-November. See website)

For additional information on courses in Turkish language & culture at Bogaziçi University (without the above described fellowships support) contact: The Language Center, Summer Program in Turkish, Bogaziçi University, 34342 Bebek, Istanbul, Turkey. 011-90-212-359-7678; <tlcp@boun.edu.tr> <http://www.tlcp.boun.edu.tr>

Institute of Turkish Studies Summer Language Study or Summer Research Grants for Graduate Students

Grants of $1000-$3000 for summer travel to Turkey for research of for language study at an established Ottoman or Turkish language training facility; available to graduate students in any field of the Social sciences & humanities who are US Citizens or permanent residents preparing for graduate research related to Turkey. (2 different applications – one for language study, one for research)

The Institute of Turkish Studies, Georgetown University
3300 Whitehaven St. NW, Washington, DC 20007
(202) 687-0292, FAX (202) 687-3780; itsdirector@turkishstudies.org

<http://www.turkishstudies.org>;

http://www.turkishstudies.org/grants/grants_competition.shtml

Deadline (Receipt): March 3, in 2017 (Application Information posted in the Autumn)

Arabic Language Institute, Fez, Morocco

Three- and six-week courses in all levels of Modern Standard Arabic & Colloquial Moroccan Arabic offered throughout the year, including summer. (U of C Summer FLAS funds could be used)

The Arabic Language Institute in Fez, B.P. 2136,
2 Rue Ahmed Hib, Fes, Ville Nouvelle 30000, Morocco
011-212-535-62-48-50; FAX 011-212-535-93-16-08; info@alif-fes.com

<http://www.alif-fes.com/> Applications accepted on an on-going basis.

American Institute for Maghrib Studies (AIMS) Grants Program for US Citizens

Short- and long-term grants to US scholars for research in Morocco, Tunisia, Algeria, Libya or Mauritania. Research must be conducted at/through AIMS sponsored Overseas Research Centers. Short-term Research Grants for one to three months are for $6000; Long-term Research Grants of up to $15,000 are for projects of 3 months or longer. Applications and examples of previous successful applications are on the AIMS Website.

American Institute for Maghrib Studies
Center for Middle Eastern Studies, 845 N. Park Ave., Marshall Bldg, Room 470
PO Box 210158-B, Tucson, AZ 85721-0158 aims@aimsnorthafrica.org

<http://aimsnorthafrica.org/grant/>

Deadline: January 31 in 2017

ASMEA Research Grants (Association for the Study of the Middle East & Africa)

Grants of up to $2500 for scholars and students (post MA) whose research is focused on the Middle East or Africa. Applicants may be affiliated with any academic discipline. First time and junior grant applicants are preferred. Proposal must represent new and un-published research. Applicants must be members of ASMEA. Application is on the Web. info@asmeascholars.org

<https://asmea.nonprofitcms.org/c/conferences/5/pages/grantprograms>

ASMEA, 2100 M Street NW, 170-291, Washington DC 20037. 202-429-8860

Deadline: March 31 (in 2017).

EUROPE

Society for the Anthro of Europe-Center for European Studies Pre-Dissertation Fellowships

Pre-dissertation fellowships of $5000 to fund two months' research in Europe (including Turkey and Russia) and travel support for attending and presenting at the International Conference of Europeanists. Applicants are expected to have finished at least a majority of their doctoral coursework, but this is a fellowship for preliminary research and thus passage of the qualifying exam and admission to candidacy are not a prerequisite. (Those who have already engaged in extensive field work and study in Europe related to their dissertation are not eligible.) International students are eligible to apply. Fellowships have three components: a) A two-month stay abroad, during which time fellows pursue original archival and field research; b) Fellows' participation at the CES international Conference, where they present their findings and receive feedback from senior scholars; c) Publication of fellows' research reports in the CES journal, the European Studies Forum.

Council for European Studies, Columbia University, 1203A International Affairs Bldg., 420 W. 118th Street, MC 3307, New York, NY 10027. 212-854-4172. ces@columbia.edu

<https://councilforeuropeanstudies.org/grants-and-awards/sae-ces>

Application is on the Web & must be submitted electronically.

Deadline (receipt): January 15 (in 2017) (Applications available in October)

Indiana University Summer Language Workshop

Intensive summer language institute held annually at Indiana University. Languages offered (in 2017) include Arabic, Azerbaijani, BCS, Chinese, Estonian, Haitian Creole, Hungarian, Japanese, Kurdish, Lithuanian, Mongolian, Pashto, Persian, Russian Turkish, Ukrainian. Significant funding is available thru FLAS (both from here and from Indiana), Title VIII, etc.) 812-855-2889

Summer Language Workshop, Indiana Univ. 355 N. Jordan Ave, Bloomington, IN 47405-1105
languageworkshop@indiana.edu

<http://www.indiana.edu/~swseel/>

Deadline: February 1 in 2017 (for fellowship consideration)

(UChicago FLAS Deadlines are in mid-January)

American Councils for International Education ACTR-ACCELS Programs

All of these programs are funded by the US Department of State, Program for the Study of Eastern Europe and the Independent States of the Former Soviet Union (Title VIII); application is thus restricted to US citizens and permanent residents. Relevant countries are: Belarus, Central Asia, Russia, the South Caucasus, Southeastern Europe, Ukraine, and Moldova. Fellowships include round-trip international travel, housing, living stipends, visas, insurance, affiliation fees, archival access, research advising and logistical field support in the field. NOTE: "Scholars in the humanities and social sciences are eligible to apply. While a wide-range of topics (listed on the web and easily accessible, take a look AMC) receive support each year, all funded research must contribute to a body of knowledge enabling the US to better understand the region and formulate effective policies within it. All applicants should clearly describe the policy-relevance of their work, be it in anthropology, literature, history, international relations, political science, or some other field."

Research Scholar Program (More likely for FIELD WORK than pre-field research)

Fellowships valued at $5000-$25,000 for 3-9 months research trips to 13 countries in Eastern Europe and the Independent States of the former USSR [list on the web site]. (Applications for support of research in more than one country are acceptable.) Applications require a 700 word synopsis of the research in the language of the proposed host country

<http://researchfellowships.americancouncils.org/researchscholar>

Deadline: October 2, 2017, 11:59 pm outbound@americancouncils.org

Combined Research and Language Training Program (Definitely either Pre-Field or Field Work)

Fellowships valued at $5,000-$25,000 for 3 to 9 months of advanced language training (10 hours per week of private tutorials – prerequisite is at least an intermediate level of proficiency in Russian or the proposed host-country language) and research support in 13 countries in Eastern Europe and the Independent States of the former USSR [list on the web site].. (Applications for support of research in more than one country are acceptable.) Applications require a 700 word synopsis of the research in the language of the proposed host country.

Program Officer, Title VIII Research Programs, American Councils: ACTR/ACCELS

1828 L Street NW, Suite 1200
Washington, DC 20036 (202) 833-7522; FAX (202) 833-7523
outbound@americancouncils.org <http://www.americancouncils.org>
<http://researchfellowships.americancouncils.org/crlt>
Deadlines: October 2, 2017, 11:59 pm

University of Chicago Procházka Funds for Czech and Slovak Language Study

Use of these funds is broadly defined “to support Czech & Slovak Studies.” They may be used to study in the Czech Republic or Slovakia, to do research or take language courses, OR they may be used to support projects in Czech or Slovak Studies which are conducted elsewhere. Priority is given to graduate students in the Humanities Division. There is no application form for the award, but application letters should include a cover letter and a statement of purpose describing the proposed plan of study or research and its relevance to your academic program, and a proposed budget

Procházka Funds, c/o Tracy Davis 773-702-8033 tracyd@uchicago.edu
Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures (Foster 406)

<https://ceeres.uchicago.edu/content/call-applications-proch%C3%A1zka-funds-uchicago-students-only>

Deadline: April 22, in 2016 (Last advertised in 2016)

France Chicago Center Fellowships

Summer Research Fellowship. One award of $5000 to a graduate student in the Humanities or Social Sciences whose research (dissertation or pre-field) focuses all or in part on France from 1600 to the present.

Francois Furet Travel Grants. Eight $2000 awards to defray expenses associated with a short-term research project or intensive language-study program in France Application forms are on the Web

Dan Bertsche, France Chicago Center
Harper West 401, 1116 East 59th Street, Chicago 60637
(773) 702-3662; FAX (773) 702-5848; fcc@uchicago.edu;

<http://fcc.uchicago.edu/fellowships/>

Deadline: April 16 (in 2018) – 3rd Monday in April annually

ZEIT-Stiftung “Trajectories of Change” PhD Scholarships (2017 Focus: Reshaping the Public Sphere)

The scholarship programme “Trajectories of Change” addresses historical and current transformation processes in the European neighborhood (Western & Eastern Europe, North Africa, Middle East, Central Asia). It offers stipends and fieldwork grants for PhD students in the humanities and social sciences. For 2017, research applications dealing with the changing public spheres and their impact on transformation are especially welcome. The programme offers flexible funding schemes for PhD students at various stages of their dissertation research as well as for graduate students in the phase of PhD project development:

PhD Scholarships – for PhD students already enrolled in a PhD program, duration up to 3 years,
Stipend 1200 Euros/month (approx. $1400 USD) + conference funds

Dissertation Completion Scholarships – one year/12 month awards, 1200 Euros/mo + conference funds

Pre-Doctoral Research Grants – Single grants of a maximum of 5000 Euros to support dissertation project development + conference funds

Fieldwork Grants – Single grants of max. 3000 Euros supporting travel costs and research expenses during fieldwork (grant seen as supplemental to other funding from other institutions)
+ conference funds

Application is online

<http://trajectories-of-change.de/about/#basicitem1>

ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius

Feldbrunnenstrasse 56

20148 Hamburg, Germany +49 (0) 40 41 336 785; +49 (0) 40 41 336 770

Jane Bartels, Program Manager bartels@zeit-stiftung.de

Deadline: July 27 (in 2017)

DAAD Research Grants (PhD Candidates & Recent PhDs)

Short-term grants of 1-5 months to enable PhD candidates (& recent PhDs) to carry on study or research at universities or institutes in Germany (Can be used either for research related to an MA or PhD here – or to pursue a degree at a German university) Requires adequate knowledge of German language to carry out the proposed research. Open to US and Canadian citizens and to international students enrolled in doctoral programs in the US and Canada

DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service)
Short Term Research Grants, 871 United Nations Plaza)
New York, NY 10017
(212) 758-3223; FAX (212) 755-5780
daadny@daad.org; <http://www.daad.org>;

<https://www.daad.org/en/find-funding/graduate-opportunities/research-grants/short-term-research-grants/>

Deadline (postmark): November 4 (for 10 month and short-term grants)
May 15 (for short-term grants)

DAAD (German Academic Exchange) Grants for Intensive Language Courses in German

Scholarships (approx. 2300 Euros) for US or Canadian students to support attendance of intensive German courses at a language institute in Germany. Award holder receive a list of available course locations and course providers from DAAD and can choose their own course. To qualify for these grants, applicants' German language skills must correspond at least with Goethe-Institute Grundstufe 1 and most with Mittelstufe 1 level and between 19 and 32 years of age. Scholarship covers course fees, accommodation, and a flat rate travel allowance. Duration is for two months of study between June and January.

DAAD New York Office, 871 United Nations Plaza
New York, NY 10017; (212) 758-3223; FAX: (212) 755-5780
daadny@daad.org;

<https://www.daad.org/en/find-funding/undergraduate-opportunities/intensive-language-course-grant/>

Deadline: (postmark) December 1 (in 2016)

LATIN AMERICA

Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS)/ Tinker Field Research Grants

Travel grants for graduate students (MA or PhD level in all fields) to conduct preliminary field research of 4-12 weeks in Iberia or the Spanish or Portuguese-speaking countries of Latin America. Grants cover airfare and in-country travel only.

Center for Latin American Studies
Kelly Hall 109A (5848 S. University)
Chicago, IL 60637 <http://clas.uchicago.edu/grants/tinker.shtml>
(773) 702-8420; clas@uchicago.edu Jamie Gentry jgentry@uchicago.edu

Deadline: February 28 (in 2017) (Applications will be available in January)

Dumbarton Oaks, Short-Term Residencies for Graduate Students, Pre-Columbian Studies

Short-Term residencies for advanced graduate students who are either preparing for Ph.D. qualifying exams or writing doctoral dissertations in the field of Pre-Columbian Studies (Mexico, Central America, and Andean South America). Students who need access to the fieldwork and photo collections or to the Rare Book Room, or who wish to examine museum objects are particularly encouraged to apply. Each residency provides 2-4 weeks of free accommodation in the Fellows Building and free lunches on weekdays, plus an unlimited pass to the Pre-Columbian Library for the period of residency. Number and duration of residencies awarded depends on space availability in the Fellows Building.

Director of Pre-Columbian Studies, Dumbarton Oaks Research Library & Collection, 1703 32nd Street, NW, Washington, DC 20007-2961; (202) 339-6440
Pre-Columbian@doaks.org;

<http://www.doaks.org/research/support-for-research/short-term-predocctoral-residencies/short-term-residencies>

Deadline: At least 60 days prior to the preferred residency dates

MUSEUMS, LIBRARIES, OTHER

Smithsonian Institution Graduate Student Fellowships

Independent research done in-residence at the Smithsonian in association with the research staff and using the Institution's resources. (See brochure for possible areas of research.) Available to full-time graduate students who have not yet been admitted to candidacy. 10-week Graduate Student Fellowships of $7000. Application is on the Web.

Smithsonian Institution, Office of Fellowships

470 L'Enfant SW Suite 7102, MRC 902, PO Box 37012, Washington, DC 20013-7012

(202) 275-0655; siofg@ofg.si.edu; <http://www.si.edu/ofg/fell.htm>

<http://www.smithsonianofg.com/fellowship-opportunities/smithsonian-institution-fellowship-program/>

Deadline (Postmark): December 1 (10:59 CST)

Summer Institute in Museum Anthropology (SIMA) (Dept. of Anthropology, National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution)

SIMA is intended for graduate students preparing for research careers in cultural anthropology who are interested in using museum collections as a data source. (NOT designed to serve students seeking careers in museum management or whose research field is archaeology.) The Institute introduces 12 graduate students to the scope of collections and their potential as data; provides training in appropriate methods to collect and analyze museum data, makes participants aware of a range of theoretical issues relating to collections, and positions students to apply their knowledge within their home universities. Program is open to all US graduate students even if they are studying abroad and to international graduate students enrolled in American universities. The program covers students' room, board, and tuition. Housing is provided and a small stipend will be provided for food and other local expenses. Participants are individually responsible for the cost of travel to and from Washington, DC. This is an intensive residential program and the participants are expected to devote full time to the training. Preparatory readings are assigned to ensure that students arrive with comparable background knowledge.

Applications are on line.

<http://www.anthropology.si.edu/summerinstitute/>

Deadline: March 1 (in 2017)

Field Museum of Natural History

Various grant and scholarship (tuition and stipend) opportunities for research and training on the Museum's collections, including graduate student fellowships and funds for visiting scholars – and dissertation research (Applications on the Web)

Chair, Scholarship Committee, Office of Academic Affairs, The Field Museum

1400 S. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60605-2496; 312-665-7627

chair_scholarship@fieldmuseum.org

<https://www.fieldmuseum.org/about/careers/research-scholarships-and-grants>

<https://www.fieldmuseum.org/about/careers/research-scholarships-and-grants/graduate-student-fellowships> grants/graduate-student-fellowships

Deadline: December 7 (Graduate Fellowships), November 1 (Visiting Scholarships)

John Carter BROWN Library Research Fellowships

Fellowships for research in holdings of the John Carter Brown Library at Brown University in Providence Rhode Island. Pre-Doctoral students are only eligible to apply for the Short-Term Fellowships – which are available for periods of two to four months and carry a stipend of $2100 per month. There is no citizenship requirement; graduate students must have passed their PhD qualifying examinations at the time of application. (Types of JCBL holdings—extensive collection of primary materials relating to virtually all aspects of the discovery, exploration, settlement and development of the New World – both North and South America; numerous works dealing with Native Americans in North and South America, including materials on Indian languages; numerous legal works reflecting the response of European legal systems to the growth of overseas empires; major collection on the adaptation of religion and religious institutions to the New World.)

Director, John Carter Brown Library

Box 1894, Providence, RI 02912

JCBL_Fellowships@Brown.edu

401-863-5010; FAX 401-863-3477

<http://www.brown.edu/academics/libraries/john-carter-brown/fellowships>

<https://www.brown.edu/academics/libraries/john-carter-brown/fellowships/description-fellowship-program>

Deadline (postmark): December 1 (in 2017)

8/30/2017

Department of Anthropology
University of Chicago

Fellowships and Grants for Anthropological

PRE-FIELD RESEARCH

(Similar Guides exist for Field and Post-Field Grants/Fellowships)